BUSINESS OF THE COUNCIL

8. 2017/2018 Budget Recommendations

   Doug Robertson, Town Manager, presented the staff report as filed with the Town Clerk. He explained that he has met with staff to address their concerns and suggestions for possible ways to reduce the budget deficit without affecting employees. He believed that the reductions... presented to staff would offer some form of parity amongst employees and that additionally, each department, was asked to reduce their budgets by 10%. He stated that he had also spoke with the Town Attorney regarding this request. In addition, he explained the need to conduct a classification and comprehensive study for all employees which has not been done in recent years.

Council Member Nassif asked questions regarding the PERS contribution paid by Tier 1 employees.

Council Member Emick agreed with Mr. Robertson on the need to conduct a comprehensive study for the all employees.

Council Member Stanton commented on the need to make cuts for the financial stability of the Town of Apple Valley.

Mayor Bishop stated that he was saddened that the Town was in need of making recommendations that resulted in financial cuts to staff.
